

Climate Change BOOK LIST

Want to learn more about climate change and how you can help?

There are many great books out there.

We listed a few here, and they include genres ranging from activism to fiction to history.

Borrow one (or two!) from the library and let us know what you think!

What If We Get It Right? by Ayana Elizabeth Johnson

The End of Nature by Bill McKibben

Nature's Best Hope by Douglass Tallamy

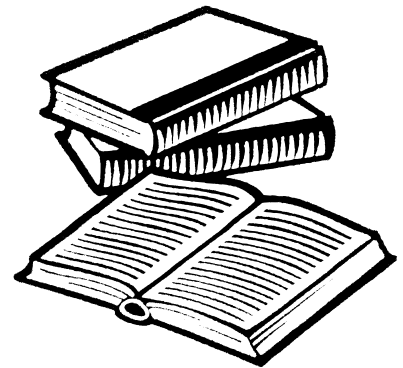

Parable of the Sower by Octavia Butler

This Changes Everything by Naomi Klein

The Serviceberry by Robin Wall Kimmerer

Floating Coast by Bathsheba Demuth

An Environmental Leader's Toolkit by Jeffrey W. Hughes

This reading list was created as part of a reading group program that was in partnership with the Rutgers Environmental Stewards (RES) program. The program is funded by Rutgers New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station. For more information, visit envirostewards.rutgers.edu.

